LAKESIDE RACING.

The crowd that visited Lakeside yesterday was as big as on the opening day. Those that went to the Indiana track were well repaid for their visit as the racing was good throughout and in nearly all cases the best horses scored. The betting was brisk and lively and fully as heavy as on the opening day.

Probably the most pretentious feature of the afternoon's sport was the third race, a dash of one and an eighth miles for four year-olds and upward. Hermencia was supported generously by the talent and was always held at odds on. It was thought that the gelding's chances were enhanced on account of Coburn having the mount. The winner, however, proved to be the well backed second choice Orontas, which finished strongly through the last quarter, and picking up Hermencia in the last eighth had little trouble in beating him to the wire after a short but sharp drive opposite the paddock gate. He won easily by two lengths, Hermencia beating Reseda four for second place. Reseda showed much speed up to a furlong out, where Hermencia interfered sharply with her, throwing her almost against the inside rail. For the interference Hermencia was promptly set back, Reseda being placed second. The latter was well tired at the time of the bumping.

Lennep ran back to her good race with Federal at Worth and had no trouble about beating her field in easy fashion. She rushed to the front at flag fall and simply smothered her field with speed, always holding a big advantage at every part of the race. She won by three lengths eased up from Telamon, he beating Charley Moore two for second place. Telamon was under keen pressure all the way, but could never close up on the winner. Charley Moore made up some ground in the last quarter Benckert and Crosby showed fairly well for six furlongs.

An unwieldy field of fourteen youngsters lined up before the barrier in the day's opener, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds. To a fair start, Miss Home, off flying, quickly assumed an easy lead and held it clear up to the last sixteenth, where Fede Meny, which had always laid second, closed up on her. The two fought it out with spirit to the wire, Miss Home gaining the verdict by a short neck. Tom Wallace finished third five lengths back. Herodes closed up fast in the last eighth and would have been third in another stride. Lingo, well backed by the talent, had no chance from where she got off. Hayden, which has not started in some time, showed well for a half mile and then dropped back in the rack. It was a mediocre field.

Emma R. repeated her six furlongs victory of the day before, taking the second race very easily in the closing strides by two lengths from Siren Song, which beat The Butcher one for second place. Siren Song tired when the hard drive came as did also The Butcher. Big Injun closed up rapidly at the end. Cora Havill II. was right there up to the last sixteenth. Olekma showed well for five furlongs.

By far the most spirited contest of the day took place in the fifth race, a scramble of five and one-half furlongs for two-year-olds. First Golden Glitter and then Autumn Leaves took the lead but in the last sixteenth the former, after apparently being beaten, rallied enough to beat the latter a head on the post in a ding dong finish, with Hoodwink one length back. The last named was right there all the way and ran to her best form. Miracle II. finished stoutly and ran right to the mark. John A. Clarke, next to the inside rail in the last eighth, seemed to have a chance along in here but tired and quit badly in the closing strides. Hopedale showed a promising turn of speed.

Old Andes took the last race without much trouble by two lengths from Eva Rice, she beating Free Pass about the same distance for second place. The Boer, backed heavily, had no chance from where he got off. Greetings showed well for six furlongs.

MORRIS PARK WINNERS.

The windup of the meeting at Morris Park shows W. C. Whitney to have been the greatest winner, as his horses won over $20,000 for him. Mr. Whitney won only six races, but they were stake events, won by King Hanover, Endurance by Right and Morningside, while Yankee contributed by running second in the rich Matron Stakes and also second to Endurance by Right in the Champagne Stakes. Heno was responsible for Clarence H. Mackay occupying the second position, because of his victory in the Matron Stakes, while third position goes to Mr. Chamblatt, as Zinziber won the Champion Steeplechase. The amounts exceeding $1000 won were as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO STAKES.

Next Monday entries to the richest stakes that will be decided at San Francisco during the course of the approaching winter campaign will close. The list includes the famous $10,000 Burns Handicap, the leading fixture of the coast, and a number of others of great value and importance. The conditions of all are set forth in the advertising department of this issue and DAILY RACING FORM is ready to supply entry blanks to all who may require them. Turfmen who intend campaigning over the splendid and well conducted tracks in the vicinity of the Golden Gate city should not fail to at once enter their horses liberally in these tempting stakes. The time for closing is right at hand and delay is dangerous. The preliminary list of stakes that closed October 5 filled surprisingly well and this more important list should be awarded even more generous patronage.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Erema's defeat in the last race at Latonia Monday caused a tilt between Starter Brown

Time, 12¹/₂, 24¹/₂, 48¹/₂, 1:15.

Winner—Br. f, by Lazzarone—Gaillard III.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. The Rogue, fresh and good and lucky, ran a good race, finished strongly and will do to follow from now on. Lamp o' Lee broke flatfooted and closed an immense gap and but for being crossed when a sixteenth out would have won anyhow. Cherries, pocketed and badly handled, was interfered with by the winner and pulled up in the last fifty yards. James J. Corbett did well and will win on a heavy track. Snark showed a fine burst of speed. Glade Run, probably short, swerved badly in the stretch. Sentry closed a big gap from a bad start.

Overweights—Snark, 5 pounds; Wunna, 3.

The Rogue, show, 8 to 5. Lamp o' Lee, show, 1 to 2. Cherries, show, 1 to 2.

29033 SECOND RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. f, by Kismet—Joiza.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Fatalist showed improved form on this track, was finely ridden and finished with a rush. The Amazon made his run too soon and was a good mare very badly handled. Althea, off badly, closed a big gap, finished very fast and likes this track. Animosity broke slowly, was probably short and can do better. Curtsey will last longer on a heavy track. Elsie Skip also has a chance in the mud among cheap ones.

Scratched—28968 Maroth, 95.

Overweights—Curtsey, 4 pounds.

Fatalist, show, 1 to 2. The Amazon, show, 7 to 10. Althea, show, 4 to 5. Animosity, show, 1 to 7.

Winner—Ch. f, by His Highness—Nelson.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily. Glennellie was the best, besides being away well and lucky throughout. Jack McGinn ran a fine race and is a remarkably improved colt and should win soon. Kingstelle finished strongly. In Shot was nearly left. Flara and Ante Up quit.

Scratched—28397 Lucent, 116.

Overweights—Arganauta, 1 pound.

Glennellie, show, 1 to 6. Jack McGinn, show, 2¹ to 1. Kingstelle, show, 12 to 1. In Shot, show, 2 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

and John Hall, trainer for Joe Pugh, in whose stable Erema is kept. After the race Hall made some remark about the start. Brown heard it, and, walking over to Hall, said: "If you don't like the starting you need not start any." Hall then proceeded to call Brown and for a few moments it looked as if a mix-up might follow, as neither Hall nor Brown are of the kind to run away from a fight. Just when the clash was expected Judge Perkins came up, and, addressing Brown, said: "I don't want any arguing or fighting on this race track, Mr. Brown. If you engage in a fight here I will see to it that you are ruled off for life. I will give you the same warning, Mr. Hall." Friends of the two men then interfered and they departed in opposite directions. Trainer Hall was under the impression that Erema was given the worst of the start. The form sheet shows that she got off sixth, just in front of Lyrer Bell, the winner of the race.

As a result of the dispute over the start of the last race, a match race was arranged between Lyrer Bell and Erema. P. J. Gorman, in whose name Erema is running, offered to bet $1,000 that Erema can beat Lyrer Bell. The wager was accepted by "Bob" McMillan and a forfeit put up. The race is to take place Saturday, providing the track is in good condition. It will be a six-furlong affair.

A dispatch from Louisville to the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune of yesterday says:

"W. O. Palmer, Secretary of the Douglass Park Track, was at the track today making final preparations for the fall meeting, which opens next Saturday and continues thirteen days. This does not mean that the meeting will run but thirteen days, for if the weather continues favorable it will be extended till December 1. Although there has been very little time for preparation, Mr. Palmer has worked with zeal and the prospects for a successful meeting are excellent. The St. Louis meeting closes next Thursday, and already Assistant Secretary Farmer has been deluged by horsemen racing there for stable room at Louisville. There will be fully twenty carloads here from St. Louis next Friday, and as there are 150 horses at the track now there will be no dearth of good horses. Mr. Palmer gave out a partial list of the officials who will act during the coming meeting. John Morrow, of Nashville, will act as judge, with some well-known local man to officiate with him. William Brunen will wield the starter's flag and Lyman H. Davis, of Newport, will probably be clerk of the scales."

Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Ice Water ran a fast and game race under a good ride and finished strongly. Bessie McCarthy was sore, began slowly and closed up very fast in the stretch and probably wants a longer route. Dewey finished well. Messina was short but has worked fast. Halberdier beat the gate and ran a fast three furlongs.
Scratched—28632 The Pride of Surrey, 105; 28985 G. Whittier, 100; 29031 Sparklet, 99.
Overweights—Leander, 2 pounds.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Miss Hume, off flying, showed speed to lead for the first five furlongs, but had to be driven out to stall off Fade Meny's bid at the end. The latter finished resolutely, but could not quite get up. Tom Wallace ran a fair race making up ground in the stretch. Herodes came strongly in the last sixteenth. Haydon ran well for a half mile.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Emma R. repeated her good race of the day before, coming fast in the last sixteenth and winning without much trouble. Siren Song was the best of the others. She stood a long drive down the stretch with The Butcher and showed gameness in the closing strides. The Butcher faltered in the last fifty yards. Big Injun finished stontly. Cora Havill II. showed speed for five and a half furlongs. Olekma died away in the last quarter.
Emma R., show, out. Siren Song, show, 3 to 5. The Butcher, show, 6 to 5.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Orontas moved up fast when entering the last quarter and after a short struggle with Hermencia in the last sixteenth drew away easily. Reseda tired badly in the last eighth, and here Hermencia fouled Reseda by crowding her into the inside rail. He was promptly disqualified and Reseda gained second place.

Winner—B. m. by Candelmas—Wanton.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Lennep was speedy and in good form and the result was never in doubt after flag drop. Teleman did his best, but could not close up on the winner at any part of the race. He was under keen pressure in the last quarter. Charley Moore finished strongly through the last eighth. Benckart ran fairly well for six furlongs, as also did Crosby.
Overweights—Teleman, 5 pounds.

Winner—Br. f. by Ingoldsby—Goldie Cad.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Golden Glitter ran a peculiar race. After being well up the first quarter she fell slightly back and then moved up fast toward the last eighth post. Here she hung slightly and then rallied again and finished fast. Autumn Leaves ran back to her best form and was beaten in the last stride. Hoodwink was right there all the way. Miracle II. ran right to the mark. John A. Clarke faltered in the last sixteenth. He seemed to have a chance when a furlong out. Pronta made up ground in the last quarter. She was too slow in getting into her stride. Bragg could not get up a decent gallop.

Winner—Br. h. by Helicon—Jess.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Andes ran one of his best races and showed gameness in the last eighth when challenged by Eva Rice. Eva Rice ran well and was the best of the others. Free Pass tired in the last eighth. Do Madge ran well throughout. Greetings ran well for six furlongs. The ride on The Boer was weak. Gormley had him hopelessly pocketed in the first quarter and then rode him all over the track. Nyx showed a turn of early speed.
Scratched—28978 Miss Conrad, 103; 28932 Tammany Chief, 93; 29007 El Ghor, 101; 28960 Prairie Dog, 101; 28374 Star Cotton, 96.
Overweights—Rod Hamlin, 1 pound; Do Madge, 2.
Andes, show, evens. Eva Rice, show, 1 to 2. Free Pass, show, 1 to 2. The Boer, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Inspector B.—La Danseuse.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lynch was much the best and won at the end as he pleased. He lost ground on the stretch turn and suffered from early interference. Carat was bumped into soon after the start and thrown out of his stride. Called Back got up in the final stride. After a stormy passage Maria Elena had clear sailing throughout and raced Zoraide into submission but tired badly at the end.
Scratched—29021 Little Master, 104; 29000 Man, 104.
Overweights—Oton Clay, 4 pounds.
Lynch, show, evens. Carat, show, out. Called Back, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bermuda—Catherine of Navarre.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Terra Firma set a fast pace in the first part of the race, then appeared to be beaten in the stretch when challenged by Rubus, but under a hard drive came again. Rubus appeared like an easy winner in the last sixteenth, but O'Neil rode a weak finish. Taby Tosa was outrun in the early stages, but at the end came with a rush. Colonial Girl ran a good race. Byrne of Roscrea showed his usual early speed, but quit when challenged. Sambo is stale and requires a rest.
Terra Firma, show, 6 to 5. Rubus, show, out. Taby Tosa, show, out. Colonial Girl, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Uncas—Cadence.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Patroclus won a lucky race. He avoided interference, saved much ground in the stretch and just lasted long enough. Albert F. Dewey began slowly and was in close quarters through the stretch and was generally badly messed about. Wine Press outgamed Spry. The latter had bad racing luck and should have been closer up. Picador could not raise a respectable gallop. Crocket's performance was in sharp contrast with her last race.

Winner—B. f. by Badge—Mollie Pitcher.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a great struggle for first honors between Badge Bell and Elbe in the last furlong, the former staying best and being best ridden at the end. Economic was coming strongly at the finish. Janowood closed a big gap. St. Wood was crowded out of the race on the backstretch and sulked and was eased up. Falella showed early speed. Lady Ezzel threw her rider when going to the post, injuring his knee. She ran away three and three-quarter miles and was excused and money refunded.

Winner—B. g. by Inspector B.—La Danseuse.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lynch was much the best and won at the end as he pleased. He lost ground on the stretch turn and suffered from early interference. Carat was bumped into soon after the start and thrown out of his stride. Called Back got up in the final stride. After a stormy passage Maria Elena had clear sailing throughout and raced Zoraide into submission but tired badly at the end.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bermuda—Catherine of Navarre.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Terra Firma set a fast pace in the first part of the race, then appeared to be beaten in the stretch when challenged by Rubus, but under a hard drive came again. Rubus appeared like an easy winner in the last sixteenth, but O'Neil rode a weak finish. Taby Tosa was outrun in the early stages, but at the end came with a rush. Colonial Girl ran a good race. Byrne of Roscrea showed his usual early speed, but quit when challenged. Sambo is stale and requires a rest.

Winner—B. c. by Uncas—Cadence.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Patroclus won a lucky race. He avoided interference, saved much ground in the stretch and just lasted long enough. Albert F. Dewey began slowly and was in close quarters through the stretch and was generally badly messed about. Wine Press outgamed Spry. The latter had bad racing luck and should have been closer up. Picador could not raise a respectable gallop. Crocket's performance was in sharp contrast with her last race.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:16, 1:42.

Winner—B. f. by Badge—Mollie Pitcher.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a great struggle for first honors between Badge Bell and Elbe in the last furlong, the former staying best and being best ridden at the end. Economic was coming strongly at the finish, Janowood closed a big gap. St. Wood was crowded out of the race on the backstretch and sulked and was eased up. Falella showed early speed. Lady Ezell threw her rider when going to the post, injuring his knee. She ran away three and three-quarter miles and was excused and money refunded.
Scratched—28995 Louisville Belle, 100; 27668 Eleanor Holmes, 98; 28995 John W. Patton, 98.
Overweights—Badge Bell, 1 pound; Aquinas, 2; Little Sallie, 1; Falella, 2; Lady Ezell, 3.
Badge Bell, show, 2 to 1. Elbe, show, evens. Economic, show, 3 to 1. St. Wood, show, out.

29039 SECOND RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $300. 2-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances.
